The Miners' Union of Butte asks

for Eight Hours.

THE MINE SUPERINTENDENTS

Are Considering the Proposition-It will be Decided Monday-Fire in Shoshone-A Saicide in Hailey.

BUTTE, Mont., Nov. 22 .- [Special telegram to THE HERALD.] - The Miners' union gram to The Herald.]—The Miners' union of this city to-day demanded a reduction to eight hours for a day's work and that wages remain as they are. This is the wages December 1. The demand has been wages December 1. The demand has been wages December 1. wages remain as they are. This is the strongest individual labor organization in the country, baving a full membership of 5,000 and a working force of over three thousand. Backed by such an army as this, their demand will be at least respectfully considered. The union has never failed to make a point attempted, and should the mine owners refuse this request, the result could not be other than disasterous to every Butte interest and so far there is no desire to force trouble and all parties appear willing to meet and setthoumicably. The superintendents met this afternoon and departed without action. Nothing will now be done before Mon-
